Clinician Biographies

Mr. John E. Wright

John Wright is in his third year as the Director of Bands at Salem High School in Salem, Virginia. The band program consists of a Symphonic Band, two Concert Bands, Jazz Band, Percussion Ensemble, Indoor Percussion, Indoor Guard and The "Pride of Salem" Marching Band.

John began his journey in education as a drumline instructor and percussion arranger. He instructed the drumlines in both Virginia and West Virginia. After working with several organizations he returned to school and was accepted to Radford University where he earned a Bachelor's of Music Education degree. John is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

John began his teaching career in Roanoke City where he piloted the VH1 Save the Music program for instrumental music. He led a successful middle school band program before moving to Salem City in 2014. John continued teaching middle school at Andrew Lewis, while also being the Assistant Director of Salem High School. In his two years at Andrew Lewis the bands performed in the District VI VBODA State Assessment Festival and Music in the Parks competitions, earning excellent and superior ratings.

In 2016 John became the Salem High School Director of Bands. Under his direction, members of the band perform 85 times every school year including football games, pep rallies, parades, indoor drumline/guard events, a special Olympic send-off and a pregame performance of the National Anthem for the Alonzo Amos Stagg Bowl at the Division III College National Championship on ESPN. In November of 2018, the marching band received a superior rating as Class 4A State Runner-ups in the VMBC Championship at Liberty University.

John lives in Salem, VA with his wife of twelve years, Jessa, and their three children, Brynn, Elle and Jett.

Mr. KJ Stafford

K.J. Stafford has been the band director at Hickory Middle School in Chesapeake, Virginia since 2006. His responsibilities include directing the sixth, seventh, and eighth-grade bands, jazz band, woodwind choir, and percussion ensembles, as well as serving as the music department chair. Under his direction, the HMS Bands have earned Superior ratings every year in concert band assessment performances and, in 2009, the Hickory Middle School eighth grade band performed at the Virginia Music Educators State Conference in Hot Springs, Virginia. K.J. also assists with the Hickory High School marching band and the WGI World Champion Hickory Concert Percussion Ensemble.

In addition to teaching middle school band, K.J. is the Assistant Percussion Caption Manager of the Santa Clara Vanguard, where he has worked since 2011. During that time, the percussion section has earned four Fred Sanford Awards for Best Percussion (2014, 2016, 2017, 2018) as well as the DCI World Championship in 2018. Prior to working at SCV, K.J. also taught on the percussion staff of the Phantom Regiment, earning another DCI High Percussion Championship in 2010.

K.J. earned his Bachelor's Degree in Music Education from the University of North Texas in Denton, TX. While at North Texas, he studied under Paul Rennick, Christopher Deane, Mark Ford, and Dr. Robert Schietroma. He has also earned a Master's Degree in Secondary Education from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Virginia.

When not teaching at home or with the drum corps, K.J. is in demand as an arranger, adjudicator, clinician, designer, and instructor with groups throughout the United States. His professional affiliations include the Percussive Arts Society, MENC and VMEA. K.J. endorses Innovative Percussion and Remo Drumheads.

Clinician Biographies

Mr. Chris Caldwell

Chris Caldwell received his Bachelor's Degree from Bridgewater College, where he served as the student director for the Concert Band, Stage Band, and Pep Band for three years. Mr. Caldwell was recognized in 2001 by Bridgewater College for his efforts in establishing the college's first formal athletic band, The Screaming Eagle Pep Band. While at Bridgewater College he studied under the late, Dr. Thomas R. Thornley. Upon graduating from Bridgewater College, he received his first teaching position as the instrumental music teacher at Staunton River Middle School in Moneta, Virginia. He remained at Staunton River Middle School from 1997 to 1999. In 1999, Mr. Caldwell became the director at Staunton River High School where he served as the band director until the spring of 2004. In the fall of 2004, Mr. Caldwell accepted his current position as band director at Lord Botetourt High School in Daleville, Virginia. During his tenure at Lord Botetourt, the instrumental music program has grown from a small marching and concert program to a marching band of over one hundred and a thriving concert and jazz band program.

Mr. Caldwell has served as the District VI Instrumental Chairman for the Virginia Band and Orchestra Directors' Association, he has also served his district in several other positions. He has served as a guest clinician for several honors groups in Virginia and enjoys spending time working as a marching band adjudicator and drill writer.

At Lord Botetourt High School, Mr. Caldwell is the Head Indoor and Outdoor Track Coach, Webmaster, Department Chair, and Technology Contact. He is a certified Virginia High School League and USATF Track Official. He has officiated at local, District, Region, and State level meets. When he is not teaching or coaching he enjoys spending every moment he can with his wife, Melissa; his two daughters, Haley and Keely; and his son Jesse.

Dr. Rick Good

Dr. Rick Good, is currently the Department Chair and Director of Bands at Auburn University. In March of 2018, he was voted to the Board of Directors of the American Bandmasters Association for a one year term. In 2013, he was elected membership into the prestigious American Bandmasters Association, founded in 1929 by John Philip Sousa, this association is comprised of only three hundred conductors and composers from the United States and Canada. He also serves as the immediate Past-President of the National Band Association, the world's largest organization for bands.

Prior to that promotion he served for 12 years as Marching Band Director and Associate Professor of Low Brass. Under his direction in 2004, the AU Marching Band received the Sudler Trophy Award, the nation's highest and most coveted award for college and university marching bands. The marching band's membership grew from 275 to 375, the biggest increase in membership to date and one of the largest marching bands in the history of Auburn University happened during his tenure as director.

Dr. Good taught for seven years in the public schools of Pennsylvania and Virginia. The ensembles, under his direction, have performed at state music conventions and have received numerous superior ratings at state and national band festivals. Dr. Good also served on the summer brass and conducting faculty for five years at the prestigious Blue Lake International Fine Arts Camp in Michigan while teaching at Auburn University.

Dr. Good originally hails from Allentown, Pennsylvania where he was a member of the famous "Allentown Band," the oldest civilian community band in the United States. Dr. Good has also performed professionally at Busch Gardens theme park in Williamsburg, Virginia. While at Busch Gardens he met his wife, Dr. Jennifer Good, Associate Provost at Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL. They have two daughters and three grandchildren.
