Clinician Biographies: Junior Bands

Chris Lockhart, Junior Concert Band

Director, T. A. Dugger Jr. High

Mr. Lockhart is in his sixteenth year as band director at T. A. Dugger Jr. High in Elizabethton, Tennessee. His students participate in the upper area junior clinic and solo and ensemble events. He also works with the "State Champion" Elizabethton High School "Betsy Band". He has a bachelor's degree in music education from East Tennessee State University.

Mr. Lockhart is married to Regina Kilgore Lockhart of Scott County, Virginia. They have two sons and five grandchildren that they love spending time with. Before coming to Elizabethton, Mr. Lockhart taught band for 14 years in Southwest Virginia. He has worked as a clinician and adjudicator in Virginia, Kentucky, and Tennessee.

He is an active member of the East Tennessee School Band and Orchestra Association, Tennessee Music Educators Association, Music Educators National Conference, and the National Band Association.

Rodney Workman, Junior Symphonic Band

Director, Central Davidson High School

Rodney K. Workman is currently Director of Bands at Central Davidson High School in Lexington, NC. He received degrees in Music Performance and Music Education from Appalachian State University. He is in his 10th year at Central in which time he served as the director of the middle school band program and later transitioned to the high school where he teaches all concert bands and assist the MS-serving more than 510 students each day. Since coming to Central the bands have received only Superior Ratings at district MPA in Grades II, III, IV at the middle school and IV, V and VI at the high school. His top high school Symphonic Band was most recently invited and performed in Washington D.C at the U.S. Army Band's National Concert Band Festival, "The President's Cup".

In addition to his school work he has served on staff of Cannon Music Camp, Mars Hill University Summer Music Camp and is also a conductor of the "Carolina Ambassador's Honor Band" which tours the U.K., France, Switzerland, Austria, Germany and Italy giving concerts in each country during June and July. He has also conducted over 25 Honor Bands and Clinics across the state in recent years and regularly adjudicates marching and concert band events.

Mr. Workman has been the recipient of the "First Year Teacher of the Year" award while teaching in Burke County, was selected as the 2011-2012 "Teacher of the Year" at Central Davidson Middle as well as being selected as a finalist for the same award for the Davidson County School System. He was also selected to receive the "Encore Award" from the "American School Band Directors Association" and was recently elected into the membership of that group. In 2014 he was selected as one of School Band and Orchestra Magazine's "50 Directors Who Make a Difference".

Mr. Workman is active in the North Carolina Bandmasters Association where he currently serves as the President of the State Association. He has also served as President of the Northwest District Bandmasters. He is a member of the National Band Association, the American School Band Director's Association, the Gamma Beta Phi Society, Kappa Delta Pi and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia Fraternity in which he served as Rho Tau Chapter President.

Clinician Biographies: Senior Bands

Dr. Matthew Frederick, Senior Concert Band

Director of Bands, Emory & Henry College

A native of Slatington, Pennsylvania, Matthew Frederick attended West Chester University in West Chester, Pennsylvania and earned a Bachelor's degree in Music Education. Upon graduation he began graduate school at Auburn University then continued his education at The University of Texas where he completed his Doctor of Musical Arts degree in trumpet performance. He is currently the associate professor of trumpet and director of bands at Emory & Henry College. During his time at Emory & Henry he has built a trumpet ensemble that is a two-time semi-finalist at the National Trumpet Competition and has been selected three times to perform at the International Trumpet Guild Conference. The brass ensembles have toured Germany, Austria, and most recently China as well. He is also the director of the Emory & Henry College Marching Band.

In addition to his duties here at Emory & Henry College, Dr. Frederick is the music director at Pleasant View United Methodist Church in Abingdon. He has performed as co-principal trumpet with the Symphony of the Mountains, principal trumpet of the Johnson City Symphony, first trumpet player at The Barter Theater, and is an active lecturer on Civil War Brass Bands as well as serving as a clinician for school music programs. Some of Dr. Frederick's brass band arrangements can be on the CD entitled "Cheer Boys Cheer" released by the Moravian Music Foundation, and his book, entitled "Trumpet Notes" has been published by A.K. Brass Press. Matt Lives in Abingdon, VA with his wife Sandy and their sons Hyder and Jackson.

Mr. Samuel R. Hazo, Senior Symphonic Band

Composer & Music Educator, Pennsylvania

Samuel R. Hazo resides in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania with his wife and children. In 2003, Mr. Hazo became the first composer in history to be awarded the winner of both composition contests sponsored by the National Band Association. His piece Mountain Thyme was an Honorable Mention for the 2013 CBDNA Composition Contest. He has composed for the professional, university and public school levels in addition to writing original scores for television, radio and the stage. His original symphonic compositions include performances with actors Brooke Shields, James Earl Jones, and Richard Kiley. Most recently, Mr. Hazo was asked by the Newtown School District to compose the memorial for the children and women who were lost in the tragedy at their Sandy Hook Elementary School. The result was a major work for Choir, Orchestra and Wind Band combined titled "Glorificare." It was premiered in May of 2013 by the Hartford Symphony Orchestra and VOCE Singers performing side-by-side with the Newtown High School musicians. Mr. Hazo also composed "Bridges," which he was requested to write by Virginia Tech University following their tragic shootings. In 2012, two of Mr. Hazo's compositions were performed at the London Summer Olympic Games.

Samuel R. Hazo has been a music teacher at every educational grade level from kindergarten through college, including tenure as a high school and university director. He has been invited to guest conduct over 70 university ensembles and half of the All-State bands in America. Mr. Hazo was twice named "Teacher of Distinction" by the southwestern Pennsylvania Teachers' Excellence Foundation. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Duquesne University where he served on the Board of Governors and was awarded as Duquesne's Outstanding Graduate in Music Education. Mr. Hazo serves as a lecturer and clinician for Hal Leonard Corporation.
